STATE SUPT. LEE TO BE HERE, JAN. 18

TO ATTEND SCREEN PARTY OF COUNTY EDUCATIONAL FILM

UEL LAMKIN TO PRESIDE

Many Educators Are Expected to Attend Party Jan. 18 at First Christian Church

Charles A. Lee, state superintendent of schools, this morning accepted the invitation of county superintendent, Leslie G. Somerville, to be in Maryville January 18, to attend the screen Party, or first showing of Nodaway County's school film entitled, "And the Truth Shall Make You Free."

There will be 4,500 feet of film in this new picture, comprising five reels. The filming has cost $2,500 and the picture is the only one of its kind in the United States. It will be a privilege for the Maryville people to attend the first showing of this educational and entertaining picture, with a sprinkling of comedy mixed in.

A program is being arranged to be given in conjunction with the showing of the pictures. President Uel W. Lamkin of the Teachers College, will preside at the meeting. Invitations have been sent out to over sixty school superintendents and prominent educators. Many of these educators have already shown an interest in the building of this film.

The picture will probably be a surprise to the people, who are not in close touch with school work in the County, as it shows the variety of of school activities and the creditable manner in which they are presented. The pictures of rural day floats, and the 4,000 rural school children present on that day will be well worth going to see. Educators who now know of the plans worked out in taking the film, say it should be one of most worth while productions of visual education ever put out.

AWARD 16 SWEATERS AT THE COLLEGE YESTERDAY

Three Men Make Letters Who Did Not Play Enough to Get a Sweater

Football sweaters were awarded yesterday to sixteen players who participated with the State Teachers College team last fall. The sweaters this year are dark green coat sweaters with a white letter M on the left side. The service stripes, denoting the number of years of service, are woven into the left sleeve.

Three other players received a letter but no sweater. These players were Barclay, Ashcroft and Steiger. They were all letter men last year but did not play enough this year to earn a sweater.

Three men, Kirby, Webb and Hayes, each received three service stripes, indicative of three years playing on the team. A number of others were awarded sweaters with two stripes.

The men who received sweaters were Graham, Webb, Leech, Foreman, Wilson, Beck, Messmer, Akars, England, Palmer, Kirby, Young, Thompson, Allan, Hayes.

The Gaynor school is one of the most progressive in the county. The school board composed of W. E. Sparks, J. L. H. S. SCHEDULE FOR BASKET BALL MADE

OPENING GAME WILL BE WITH ST. JOSEPH BENTON HERE.

SIX GAMES ARRANGED

One Open Date Yet—Good Material on Squad—Will Enter St. Joseph Tournament.

The high school basketball schedule was announced this morning by Coach Frank Lawrence. With one exception all of the dates are filled and several teams are trying to book a game with the locals for that time.

The first four games are at home. This is a condition that is sought by many coaches, but is seldom attained. The schedule follows:

January 19—Benton at Maryville.
January 26—Trenton at Maryville.
February 3—Lafayette at Maryville.
February 9—Tarkio at Maryville.
February 16—Trenton at Trenton.
February 23—Open date.
March 2—Benton at St. Joseph.

On March 8, 9, 10 Coach Lawrence will take his team to St. Joseph for a tournament there. This will complete the schedule for the year with the exception of the Northwest Missouri High School tourney which will be held at the State Teachers College some time in March.

With the first game in basketball with Benton High School, St. Joseph only a little over a week off, Coach Lawrence has been practicing his squad overtime. This morning the coach said that his prospects were very good for the first game as he has a complete line of seasoned men to start with, all of whom are showing up well. The plays which Lawrence is drilling the boys in are meanwells short pass formation and in a five man defense.

In the offensive, Coach Lawrence has two strong dribblers and sharks at shooting for goals as forwards. Masters the captain and Roelofson a letter man of 1921. Working strong with this bunch is Fannon, last year's captain and center. Odgen and Smith can also be depended on to hold the opponents from ringing many baskets and they can also throw accurately for the loop. Running close to these men for berths on the team are Vickery of Barnard and O'Banion both good stationary guards. Willoughby Chick and J. Smith are from the squad of last years.

About twenty boys in all are out for practice this season from which a team will be picked. Coach Lawrence announced that there would be no firstsquad until after the first game of the season with Benton on the Maryville Court.

YANKS ORDERED TO LEAVE RHINELAND

IMMEDIATE EVACUATION ORDERED BY PRESIDENT HARDING

A "MOVE QUICK" ORDER

Troops Expected to Be Ready for Embarkation at Antwerp upon Arrival of Transport

Washington, Jan. 10—In the face of France's great military thrust at industrial Germany, strongly disapproved by the American government, President Harding today ordered the immediate and complete withdrawal of all American troops on the Rhine.

At the State Department it was stated merely that the time "had come" to withdraw the forces. The actual withdrawal of troops at this time, apparently growing out of the serious European situation, constitutes only a thin veil, a gesture of disapproval by the United States against the occupation of the Ruhr. The order of removal was sent directly to Major-General H. T. Allen in command of the troops at Coblenz this morning.

It is thought that the decision to remove the troops, by President Harding and Secretary Hughes, followed the receipt of the report from Myron T. Herrick and Col. Boydon, unofficial observers at the conference of the reparation commission, to the effect that nothing could halt the French plans to occupy the Ruhr Basin.

The transport St. Mihiel, which will bring home the American soldiers, will sail for Antwerp immediately and is expected to land there in eight or nine days, according to announcement from the war department. Under the order of Secretary Weeks, General Allen is instructed to have his men at Antwerp ready to go aboard when the transport arrives. The evacuation of the Rhine will be made with all possible speed.

The troops will go from Coblenz to Antwerp by rail, with a few remaining men and officers to stay a short time to clean up the odds and ends and other official business of the military occupation, which will officially remove the American flag from the Rhine. It is presumed here that the territory evacuated by the American troops will be taken over immediately by the French.

News of the immediate removal of American troops was greeted with almost universal approval in the Senate where only last Saturday, virtual request was made of the administration to bring the troops home.

"Fine," said Senator Hiram Johnson, republican of California, in commenting on the move. "It should have been done long ago."

"It was a wise decision," said Senator McCormick. "A most excellent move," declared Henry Cabot Lodge, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee.

Democrats as well as Republicans approved the move, when they learned of the completion of the job that cost the United State $250 million dollars—that sum representing the cost of occupation.

NEW STORE TO OPEN IN PICKERING AT WOLFERS

Company Formed of Eleven Stockholders with C. G. Swinford, Jr., As Manager to Open Business

Announcement has been made today that a new company has been organized and will open up a general merchandise store at Pickering in the building formerly occupied by the Wolfers Mercantile Company. The company, which will be incorporated, will be composed of eleven stockholders. C. G. Swinford, Jr., who has been connected with the Wolfers store for the past year, has been named as manager of the new store. He formerly was employed at the Remus Mercantile Co., here leaving to take a traveling position with the Craig Bros., fruit house of St. Joseph.

The new store at Pickering will be open for business at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening Jan. 12. Not that Mr. Swinford is superstitous, but he says that he will open the store at this time in order to get away from opening on the 13th, the following day. Souvenirs will be given to the women on this opening day.

Mrs. W. O. Garrett and Mrs. W. W. Randall went to St. Joseph this morning to spend the day.

MAY GIVE DEBT COMMISSION GREATER LATITUDE IN WORK

Following Conference With Harding, Senator Calder Is Expected to Present Bill to Senate

Washington, Jan. 10—The first move in Congress to give the United States debt funding commission, greater latitude in negotiating with Great Britain and other European countries of the debt question, will be introduced in the Senate immediately, probably this afternoon by Calder of New York.

527 STUDENTS IN EXTENSION WORK

COLLEGE EXTENSION DEPARTMENT MAKES ANNUAL REPORT.

PROGRESS UNDER COOPER

Department Shows Good Growth Under Bert Cooper—Lyceum Courses Now a Feature.

A total of 527 students were served by the State Teacher's College extension department last year in correspondence and extension work. Fees collected from these students totalled $5,420.50 and a total of 36,398 persons were served in the 630 meetings. 33,464 miles were traveled in the work. These are some of the high lights in the annual report made by Bert Cooper, director of extension department.

Mr. Cooper became head of the extension department a year ago last November. Prior to that time the work had been more or less unorganized. The department has made big growth and much progress under his administration, and a fine piece of work in serving the people of this college district is being done.

A new feature that has been introduced this year is furnishing all or part of the talent for lyceum courses at smaller towns in the district. For these courses all or part of the talent is being furnished at Hopkins, Quitman, New Point, Gentry, Grandview consolidated school and Denver.

The course being given at Grandview is an example of programs being given elsewhere. The first number there are readings and impersonations by Harry A. Miller. A lecture by President Lamkin is the second number, and an entertainment of readings by Miss Blanche Dow and work by Miss MacLeod's girls in the physical education department is the third number. Dr. Fred Keller lectures as the fourth number and the fifth is a musical number by Luther Richman, Thos. D. Annett and C. D. Kutschinski of the Conservatory of Music.

For this program, furnishing the tickets and talent, the College charges $100, being just enough to cover expenses. Schools and towns that are closer to Maryville get the talent cheaper as transportation charges are lower. By this method the small towns get first class entertainment at a nominal expense.

It is expected that the correspondent and extension work will greatly increase in the future as a recent agreement permits students to take as high as fifty per cent of college work in non-resident credit.

The following is the report by Mr. Cooper for the year:

Number of meetings held, 630; number of faculty members holding meetings, 21; number of people served, 36393; number of counties in district in which meetings were held, 19; number of miles traveled, 33464. A boys and girls soy bean club of 40 members was organized and conducted by the extension department.

Expenses paid by the college: cash, $50.14; College car used at College expense, 1049 miles, value at 7½ cents per mile, $78.68; total expense, $128.82. Number of extension classes, 36 number of students in extension classes, 380; number of students taking correspondence courses, 147; fees collected from extension and correspondence students, $5420.50.

Note: This report does not include the extension work done by the president.

The following part of the report gives the faculty member, number of meetings attended, people served,

FRENCH READY TO MARCH INTO RUHR

DISPATCH SAYS RHINELAND MARCH TO BEGIN TOMORROW.

GERMAN PEOPLE SULLEN

Crowds Surge Essen Streets Singing, "Deutschland Uber Allies"—50,000 French Troops Massing.

BULLETIN.

Berlin, January 10.—General De Goutte, commander of the French forces on the Rhine, has been ordered to advance upon Essen at 5 o'clock Thursday morning, said a dispatch reaching here today.

Advices assert that French troops are on the move. A note of warning has been issued that any actions of disturbance that would halt the advance of the French troops would be punished.

The foreign office announced at 7 o'clock this evening that they believed the French and Belgian troops would move to carry out the plans of occupation of the Ruhr, according to schedule. It is believed that Essen would be occupied early tomorrow.

Essen, Germany, Jan. 10. — With France massing 50,000 troops in the northern sector of the occupation zone, preparing for seizure of the Ruhr and Rhineland industrial belt, wartime patriotism flamed up among the Germans today.

Crowds surged through the streets singing, "Deutschland Uber Allies." Franco-Belgian concentration of troops continued throughout the day, however, none of them have crossed the Ruhr boundary.

No outbreak is expected at the approach of French troops. Officers are already here commandering buildings for quarters. The people are quiet, but in a sullen frame of mind.

Paris, Jan. 10—France and Belgium have sent a joint note to Germany stating that they intend to send engineers into the Ruhr to insure the necessary coal deliveries as specified under the Versailles Treaty.

They denied that the move contemplated either political or military occupation. Troops will accompany the engineers, the note said, merely to protect the engineers.

Paris, Jan. 10—France and Belgium will notify Germany during the afternoon of their intentions to occupy the Ruhr tonight or tomorrow, it was officially stated at 1 o'clock here today.

Dusseldorf, Germany, Jan. 10—The French army of invasion was held in readiness here today to march upon orders from Paris, Reports from the general staff say that the advance to Essen will probably be made either Thursday or Friday morning. It may be several days before the Ruhr territory is entered.

CROWN "CORN KING" AT KING CITY SHOW

Champion Grower, Alvah Mann, Honored—Sam Jordan of State Board Speaks

King City, Mo., Jan. 10.—King for a day—Alvah Mann was crowned the corn king of the world yesterday at the close of the King City Corn and Blue Grass Pageant.

The affair was in honor of Mr. Mann, who raised the champion ear of corn which was exhibited at the International Hay and Grain Show held in connection with the International Livestock exposition at Chicago.

The big event was sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce. Sylvanus Hobson is president and T. H. McElroy, secretary, and they had a competent corps of helpers, the publicity campaign being looked after by Editor Louis N. Bowman of the Tri-County News and Editor L. T. Moulton of the Chronicle.

Displays Attract Attention.

The displays were shown at the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce. The various growers had nice displays all neatly labeled. One display that attracted attention was that of John W. Boley, a farmer seven miles northeast of town. He specializes in Reid's Yellow Dent. John Potter, another farmer who lives in the same locality, also exhibited the same variety. Mr. Mann had samples of Reid's Yellow Dent that was considered nearly as good as the champion car. These three men are all champion corn growers, are neighbors, and related.

On the same table with their corn displays were perhaps fifty badges and ribbons won by Gentry County growers. It is no small honor for a county to be considered the champion corn growing section of such a favored state as Missouri, and a double honor comes when it produces the champion car of the entire world and Gentry County is proud of her record.

A few years ago Cooper County was considered the champion in the state, but the title was wrested from them by Atchison County a little later. It was a great disappointment to the crowd in attendance as well as to the promoters of the festival and show that the champion ear of corn could not be on display due to the fact that it had to be sent to the state show which is to be held at Columbia in a few days. The car was sent in advance so that it could be placed as a special exhibit befitting the most aristocratic ear of corn produced in the entire world in the year 1922. The trophy cup awarded Mr. Mann is also at Columbia. Mr. Mann, however, was present, a ruddy-faced farmer, who says he has spent many years trying to raise this wonderful ear of corn.

The feature event of the day was the historical pageant showing the settlement and progress of King City. The scene opened with an Indian camp, and a corn dance which was followed by the arrival of the early settlers and the subsequent events that followed to bring the progress and development down to the present day.

THE CREATION.

The Creation, an oratorio composed by Franz Joseph Haydn in 1795-1798, begins with an orchestral description of chaos. The overture is followed by the narrative in recitative of the story, "In the beginning." The chorus softly sings, "The spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, 'Let there be light.'" The sounds fade away and all is still. Then, at the utterance of the words, "and there was light" orchestra and voices mingle in an outburst of relief and exultation.

With the appearance of the first days, gloom vanishes, and order is established. Haydn's great descriptive powers are shown in various arias and choruses depicting the events of the narrative for each day. When the fourth day is announced, the "hosts of heaven" break forth in the great chorus. "The Heavens are telling the glory of God," which is considered one of the sublimest of all choral pieces, and makes an effective number for either orchestra or band.

"The Heavens are Telling" is one of the numbers to be played by the Maryville Concert Band at their sacred concert to be rendered at the First Methodist Episcopal Church at 3:15 p. m. next Sunday afternoon.

NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK

The birthday of Benjamin Franklin, author of Poor Richard's Almanac, comes January 17, and this date is made the opening day for the observance of National Thrift Week. Franklin was a splendid example of what thrift can do. He walked the streets of Philadelphia almost penniless as he was looking for work, yet soon rose to a foremost position in American life, and thrift was what gave him his start.

Unless one has an extraordinary run of hard luck, he can usually make good in life if he steadily practices thrift. Small beginnings grow to large results, and the saving habit is the foundation of success. Older people can be taught thrift by constant urging. If some solicitor for a bank should persistently ask them to start a savings account, many people might be led to do so who otherwise would save a cent. But when you start in with children at an early age, it is much easier to help them acquire this habit.

It should be just as much a part of a child's life to earn some money and save a reasonable portion of it, as to go to school. The boy who has acquired the thrift habit will get along somehow, even if he hasn't much learning. But the educated spendthrift comes to grief.

The gradual growth of a savings deposit appeals to children's imagination. They can be made to take just as much pleasure in a bank book as in spending their money for candy. It is not of course desirable to encourage them to acquire stingy habits. They should be taught that there is a time to save and a time to spend, but that some portion of every week's earnings ought to go into their permanent capital.

Thrift Week is an occasion worth noticing in Maryville and older people as well as children should make it a time for starting a savings account for 1923.

William J. Hutchins Gives Moral Code of Ten Rules for Children

Children's Code Of Morals
For Elementary Schools ....
By William J. Hutchins

Moral Code For Boys And Girls

Boys and girls who are good Americans try to become strong and useful, that our country may become ever greater and better. Therefore they obey the laws of right living which the best Americans have always obeyed.

The Law Of Health.

The Good American Tries to Gain and to Keep Perfect Health.

The welfare of our country depends upon those who try to be physically fit for their daily work.

Therefore:

1. I will keep my clothes, my body and my mind clean.

2. I will avoid those habits which would harm me, and will make and never break those habits which will help me.

3. I will try to take such food, sleep and excercise as will keep me in perfect health.

The Law of Self-control

The good American controls himself. Those who best control themselves can best serve their country.

1. I will control my tongue, and will not allow it to spenk mean, vulgar or profane words.

2. I will control my temper, and will not get angry when people or things displease me.

3. I will control my thoughts, and will not allow a foolish wish to spoil a wise purpose.

The Law of Self-reliance

The Good American Is Self-Reliant

Self-conceit is silly, but self-reliance is necessary to boys and girls who would be strong and useful.

1. I will gladly listen to the advice of older and wiser people; I will reverence the wishes of those who love and care for me, and who know life and me better than I; but I will learn to think for myself, choose for myself, act for myself.

2. I will not be afraid of being laughed at. I will not be afraid of doing right when the crowd does wrong. Fear never made a good American.

The Law Of Reliabality.

The Good American Is Reliable

Our country grows great and good as her citizens are able more fully to trust each other. Therefore:

1. I will be honest, in word and in act. I will not lie, sneak, or pretend, nor will I keep the truth from those who have a right to it.

2. I will not do wrong in the hope of not being found out. I cannot hide the truth from myself and cannot often hide it from others.

3. I will not take without permission what does not belong to me.

4. I will do promptly what I have promised to do. If I have made a foolish promise, I will at once confess my mistake, and I will try to make good any harm which my mistake may have caused. I will so speak and act that people will find it easier to trust each other.

The Law Of Clean Play

The Good American Plays Fair. ....

Clean play increases and trains one's strength, and helps one to be more useful to one's country. Therefore:

1. I will not cheat, nor will I play for keeps. If I should not play fair, the loser would lose the fun of the game, the winner would lose self-respect, and the game itself would become a mean and often cruel business.

2. I will treat my oppenent with courtesy.

3. If I play in a group game, I will play, not for my own glory, but for the success of my team and the fun of the game.

4. I will be a good loser or a generous winner.

The Law Of Duty

The Good American Does His Duty

The shirker or the willing idler lives upon the labor of others, burdens others with the work which he ought to do himself. He harms his fellow-citizens, and so harm his country.

I will try to find out what my duty is, what I ought to do, and my duty will do, whether it is easy or hard. What I ought to do I can do.

The Law Of Good Workmanship

The Good American Tries to do the Right Thing in the Right Way

The welfare of our country depends upon those who have learned to do in the right way the things that ought to be done. Therefore:

1. I will get the best possible education, and learn all that I can from those who have learned to do the right thing in the right way.

2. I will take an interest in my work and will not be satisfied with slipshod and merely passable work. A bent or a rail carelessly made may cause the death of hundreds.

3. I will try to do the right thing in the right way, even when no one else sees or praises me. But when I have done my best, I will not envy those who have done better, or have received larger reward. Envy spoils the work and the worker.

The Law Of Team-Work.

The Good American Works in Friendly Co-operation with His Fellow Workers.

One man alone could not build a city or a great railroad. One man alone would find it hard to build a house or a bridge. That I may have bread, men have sowed and reaped, men have made plows and threshers, men have built mills and mined coal, men have made stoves and kept stores As we learn better how to work together, the welfare of our country is advanced.

1. In whatever work I do with others I will do my part and will help others do their part.

2. I will keep in order the things which I use in my work. When things are out of place, they are often in the way, and sometimes they are hard to find. Disorder means confusion, and the waste of time and patience.

3. In all my work with others, I will be cheerful. Cheerlessness depresses all the workers and injures all the work.

4. When I have received money for my work, I will be neither a miser nor a spendthrift. I will save or spend as one of the friendly workers of America.

The Law Of Kindness

The Good American Is Kind.

In America those who are of different races, colors, and conditions must live together. We are of many different sorts, but we are one great people. Every unkindness hurts the common life, every kindness helps the common life. Therefore:

1. I will be kind in all my thoughts. I will bear no spites or grudges. I will not think myself above any other girl or boy just because I am of a different race or color or condition. I will never despise anybody.

2. I will be kind in all my speech. I will not gossip nor will I speak unkindly of anyone. Words may wound or heal.

3. I will be kind in all my acts. I will not selfishly insist on having my own way. I will always be polite. Rude people are not good Americans. I will not trouble unnecessarily those who do work for me. I will do my best to prevent cruelty, and will give my best help to those who need it most.

The Law Of Loyalty.

The Good American Is Loyal.

If our America is to become ever greater and better, her citizens must be loyal, devotedly faithful, in every relation of life.

1. I will be loyal to my family. In loyalty I will gladly obey my parents or those who are in their place. I will do my best to help each member of my family to strength and usefulness.

2. I will be loyal to my town, my state, my country. In loyalty I will respect and help others to respect their laws and their courts of justice.

4. I will be loyal to humanity. In loyalty I will do my best to help the friendly relations of our country of our country with every other country, and to give to everyone in every land the best possible chance.

If I try simply to be loyal to my family, I may be disloyal to my school. If I try simply to be loyal to my school I may be disloyal to my town, my state and my country. If I try simply to be loyal to my town, state and and country, I may be disloyal to humanity. I will try above all things to be loyal to humanity, then I shall surely be loyal to my country, my state and my town, to my school and to my family.

And he who obeys the law of loyalty obeys all of the other nine laws of The Good American.

Tire Prices Up

We just received notice from the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of a rise in Goodyear tires that makes them 15 to 20 per cent higher than our present selling price. Nearly all of the tire manufacturers have announced their new higher prices in the last few days.

We anticipated this rise and bought an immense stock of Goodyear and Michelin tires to protect our customers who did not believe tire prices would go up.

We will sell our present stock of tires at the old price, but of course when we buy more at the advanced price we will be compelled to sell at a higher price.

BUY NOW and save 15 to 20 per cent of the present list price on any tire in our stock.

MORE MILK CONSUMED; SMALL TOWNS IN LEAD

The people of the United States are using more milk and cream than they did 10 years ago. Statistics compiled by the United States Department of Agriculture show that seven-tenths of a pint is the average daily consumption for every man, woman, and child in the country, whereas a decade ago the consumption was six-tenths of a pint daily. This is an increase of nearly 17 per cent. These figures are based only upon milk and cream consumed as such and do not include any that enters into manufactured products.

The results are based upon figures obtained from health departments of 356 cities in all parts of the country having combined population of more than 32,000,000.

The lowest consumption, 0.47 of a pint, is in the East South Central States and highest, 0.89 of a pint, in New England. The lowest consumption in general is found in the Southern States, but it must be kept in mind that many family cows are kept in this section and milk from these animals was not taken into consideration.

The large cities use more milk per capita than those having less than 50,000 population, with the exception of those having less than 5,000 people which group has the largest consumption of all the city groups.

Conrad W. Yehle left this afternoon for Kansas City on business.

GIRL WITNESS POSITIVELY IDENTIFIES KLAN HEAD

"I Knew It Was McKoin," Says Rouge Girl, Who Was Exiled from Home By Klan Edict

Bastrop, Jan. 10.—A tragic tale of exile forced upon her by order of the Ku Klux Klan, was revealed today on the witness stand by Miss Addie Mae Hamilton, 17-year-old girl, and "woman in the case," of the Morehouse Parish "hooded mob" murders, which culminated i nthe death of Watt Daniels and Charles Richards.

Baring her life story to a crowded courtroom, she told how she had been set in judgment by the members of the Klan in regard to her moral conduct in Mer Rouge, and how the masked band had exiled her as punishment. She positively identified Dr. McKoin, now under arrest charged with complicity in the murder of Daniels and Richards, as members of the band which exiled her.

She also identified "Pink" Kirkpatrick of Mer Rouge as a second member of the masked band. While contending her innocence bravely of the charge that she had led an immoral life, which caused her banishment, she fingered a beaded handbag. Time and time again the prosecution led her back to identification o fthe two men and she positively identified them, especially, McKoin, as she kept repeating, "I knew it was McKoin."

BULL ASSOCIATIONS BIG FACTOR IN IMPROVEMENT.

During the last year the number of cooperative bull associations in the country increased from 158 to 190. These organizations, which were developed with the assistance of representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture and the State college, now own 857 bulls. Texas, Nebraska, and Ohio are new additions to the list of States where such associations have been formed. Five new associations have been formed in Illinois.

These associations have proved a great advantage in communities where individual farmers have not felt able to pay for good pure-bred bulls, or where many farmers would not have used high-grade sires on their individual initiative. The bull clubs bring in a uniform lot of bulls as good as or better than the best in the community before. These animals take the place of the mixed lot of varied breed and value. As a result of the use of so much good blood, in five or six years the grade herds belonging to the members look like pure-bred herds.

CHURCHES IN BIG GROWTH.

Increase in 1922 Exceeded That of Any Other Year.

New York, Jan. 10. — Membership growth of all American religious bodies in 1922 reached 980,000 greater by 245,000 than in any twelve months in recent years. Data hardly will be ready in complete form before the end of February, and all records are not kept on the calendar years, but enough is already known to fix the figures of increase approximately.

These increases have been well distributed, except that the small bodies stand still, some of them fall behind, while the large and well known ones, destined it would appear, to live in American affairs, grow with remarkable steadiness.

At the end of 1922 there are enrolled on the parish records of American religious bodies 43,120,000. Roman Catholic membership and growth are difficult to set down in exact figures. In this body, count is made of baptized persons, in all others of actual communicants. Catholic figures are often of population only, and in not a few dioceses, as in other bodies, none too accurate records are kept.

Methodist and Baptist bodies run very evenly—8 million each at the end of this year. Within the year Baptists of the South made marked increase; far larger than Baptists of the North.

Presbyterians and Lutherans are also quite near together in memberships, Lutherans being ahead with 2,525,000 and Presbyterians 2,305,000. Two bodies, the Disciples and Episcopal, go beyond the 1 million mark, the former with 1½ million and the latter with 1,143,000, the former standing about even, and the latter increasing in 1922 by forty thousand.

STATE APPOINTMENTS BY GOV. HYDE EXPECTED SOON

Dozen or More Offices to be Filled—Fight Expected on St. Joseph Police Commissioner

Jefferson City, Jan. 10—About a dozen appointments to state offices will probably be made to the Senate by Governor Hyde within the next few days. It is not expected that any of his recess appointments will meet with opposition in the Senate.

Among the most important appointments to state departments are Arch Hollensbeck, chairman of the state board of penal institutions, Frank C. Millspaugh, state finance officer, and R. Perry Spencer, of this city, member of the state tax commission.

The appointment of J. G. Morgan as a member of the St. Joseph police commissioners, is expected to cause a fight when it comes up for confirmation. The Ku Klux Klan of St. Joseph took action two months ago with a petition signed by 13,000 voters of that city and demanded that Governor Hyde remove the members of the police board. The terms of the members of the bi-partisan state highway commission also expire. The present members are, Theodore Gary, chairman of the board, R. S. Carnett, and Harry Careton.

The terms of T. J. Hedrick of Buckner, A. C. Dingle, Moberly, J. C. Winfield of Winsor, and W. A. Dallmeyer of this city, expires as members of the state board of agriculture and it is expected that Governor Hyde will shortly fill the vacancies.

PREACHER SAYS REDS WOULD OVERTHROW ALL CHURCH WORK IN U. S.

Defiance, Ohio, Jan. 10.—Agents of Soviet Russia have invaded every large city in the United States and by means of an organized propaganda, are endeavoring to overthrow all Christian interests and everything in American life that has been developed and sponsored by the Churches, according to Dr. Martyn Summerbell, Lakemont, New York, president of Starkey Seminary and vice-president of Defiance College, addressing local clergymen. He said co-operation among all Christian forces is needed as a means for thwarting the work of paid Russian Bolshevik and Communist agents.
